

Each partner, officer, director, associate, employee, and agent of a registrant is required to file a short form registration statement unless he engages in no activities in furtherance of the interests of the registrant's foreign principal or unless the services he renders to the registrant are in a secretarial, clerical, or in a related or similar capacity.

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, DC. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .429 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Québec Government Office in Atlanta
Senior Public and Governmental Affairs Officer

The Québec Government Office in Atlanta is seeking a Senior Public and Governmental Affairs Officer. The Atlanta Office, one of 28 located worldwide, was established to promote and develop relations with 11 Southern states in the areas of business, trade, government, education and culture. The Officer will be responsible for the activities listed below and will propose and manage initiatives related to those fields. In addition, the Officer will work closely with Québec Government ministries in their regional operations, as well as with other public and private agencies.

Under the authority of the Québec Government Delegate, the Officer must:

- Identify common regional interests in many sectors of activities, and work with state and local governments, as well as with Southern regional agencies or forums such as the Southeastern States and Canadian Provinces Alliance, to develop joint initiatives.
- Establish and implement a program of media relations, including the production of a monthly electronic newsletter and help to maintain a website.
- Develop cooperative links with Southern universities and researchers in priority areas, promote the Québec Studies Program throughout the region, and speak regularly on major issues and social questions concerning contemporary Québec.
- Organize and coordinate promotional activities such as speaking tours, round tables.
- Develop cooperation with cultural organizations, arts promoters and music festivals.
- Prepare regular reports and analysis in French or English.

The candidate should have the following basic qualifications:

- At least 5 years of professional experience in public and governmental affairs, or other relevant disciplines; preference given to candidates holding a Masters Degree in International Relations or having 2 years' experience in international and/or public affairs.
- A strong knowledge of Québec's society and institutions, and contemporary realities.
- A general knowledge and understanding of priority areas: trade, environment, energy, security, as well as academic relations, culture, media relations.
- A solid knowledge of the American society and Southern realities.
- An expertise in public affairs and communication strategies.

A solid command of the French and English languages, both written and oral, is essential to this position.

We offer a competitive salary and a complete benefits package.

Please send your letter of application, resume, letters of recommendation and other materials of interest, before March 15, 2008, in English or in French, to the following address:
